

Egeria densa – Brazilian Water-weed

Potentially invasive aquatic plant

Submersed, freshwater, perennial herb that usually roots in substrate.

Leaves are arranged in whorls of 4 – 6 leaves (left) and have finely toothed margins (right).

Flowers have 3 white petals and can be seen from summer to fall.